(UNIVERSITY OF DELHI)

BACHELOR OF PHYSIOTHERAPY 2023-24

INTRODUCTION

Amar Jyoti Institute of Physiotherapy (AJIPT) is an affiliated college of University of Delhi run under the Aegis of the Amar Jyoti Charitable Trust (Registration No. S-12181). The BPT course is of four and a half (4½) years duration. The primary focus of the Institute is to provide an integrated curriculum that combines didactic and clinical study to prepare a student for the practice of physiotherapy. The program is designed to integrate cognitive, psychomotor and interpersonal skills that are essential to the development of a competent clinician.

The aim of this course is to train students to become Physiotherapist who are competent in the management of body dysfunction using therapeutic exercises and physical modalities.

To rehabilitate individuals with health disorders such as, but not limited to, post-operative, cardio-respiratory, orthopedic, neurological, and other medical pathologies. The goal of Physiotherapy is to promote optimal human health and function through the application of scientific principles. After successful completion of the course, the University of Delhi will award a degree of Bachelor of Physiotherapy.

INFRASTRUCTURE

The Institute is located in a free standing building dedicated exclusively to its clinical and academic facilities. In addition, the Institute also has a modern conference facility, a multipurpose hall, library and space for student common rooms, sports and extracurricular activities. AJIPT is well equipped with the latest teaching tools and aids.

LIBRARY

The library is well organised & computerised, and comprises of a comprehensive collection of Medical, Physiotherapy, Disability, Education, Rehabilitation and health care related books and journals. It also provides internet access to online e-journals and several search engines / data base.

For more details about infrastructure visit our website- www.ajipt.org

TEACHING FACULTY

The faculty of AJIPT is one of its main strengths and consists of an extremely qualified group of the motivated physiotherapy academicians that are committed to education, research and to the teaching and training of students.

In addition to a full time team of dedicated faculty, the Institution has a number of experienced visiting faculty and medical practitioners from renowned organisations.

Please visit the Institute website for faculty profile and BPT syllabus offered by the University of Delhi.

 - (j) Ragging as per ordinance XV-C;
4. Without prejudice to the generality of his/her powers relating to the maintenance of discipline and taking such action in the interest of maintaining discipline as many seem to him/her appropriate, the Vice-Chancellor or any competent authority designated by the Vice-Chancellor, may in the exercise of his/her powers aforesaid order or direct:
 - (a) That any student or students be expelled; or
 - (b) Any student or students be, for a stated period, rusticated; or
 - (c) Be not, for a stated period, admitted to a course or courses of study in a college, department or institution of the university;
 - (d) Be fined with a sum of rupees that may be specified; or
 - (e) Be debarred from taking a University or College or Departmental Examination or Examination for one or more years; or
 - (f) That the result of the student or students concerned in the examination or examinations in which he/she or they have appeared be cancelled.
5. The Principals of the Colleges, Heads of the Halls, Deans of Faculties, Heads of Teaching departments in the University, the Principal, School of Correspondence Courses and Continuing Education and librarian shall have the authority to exercise all such disciplinary powers over students, in their respective College, Institution, Faculties and Teaching Departments in the University as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the Institution, Halls and teaching in the concerned departments. They may exercise their authority through, or delegate authority to, such of the teachers in their College, Institutions or Departments as they may specify for these purposes.
6. Without prejudice to the powers of the Vice-Chancellor and the Proctor as aforesaid, detailed rules of discipline and proper conduct shall be framed. These rules may be supplemented, where necessary, by the Principals of College, Heads of Halls, Deans of Faculties and Heads of Teaching Departments in the University. Each student shall be expected to provide himself/herself with a copy of these rules.
7. At the time of admission, every student shall be required to sign a declaration that on admission he/she submits himself/herself to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Vice-Chancellor and the several authorities of the University who may be vested with the authority to exercise discipline under the Acts, the Statutes, the Ordinances and the Rules that have been framed hereunder by the University.

Policy on SEXUAL HARASSMENT

THE SEXUAL HARASSMENT OF WOMEN AT WORKPLACE

(PREVENTION, PROHIBITATION AND REDRESSAL) ACT, 2013

(No.14 of 2013) [22nd April, 2013]

PART ONE

PREAMBLE

An act to provide protection against sexual harassment of women at work place

And for the prevention and redressal of complaints of sexual harassment and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

WHEREAS sexual harassment results in violations of the fundamental rights of a woman to equality under articles 14 and 15 of the Constitution of India and her right to life and to live with dignity under article 21 of the Constitution and right to practice any profession or to carry on any occupation, TRADE or business which includes a right to safe environment free from sexual harassment;

AND WHEREAS the protection against sexual harassment and the right to work with dignity are universally recognised human rights by international conventions and instruments such as Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women, which has been ratified on 25th June, 1993 by the Government of India;

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to make provisions for giving effect to the said Convention for protection of women against sexual harassment at work place.

SOCIAL CONTEXT OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Though violent conduct is prohibited both by law and by University Rules, a specific policy defining sexual harassment is required to address the specific form and extent of sexual harassment in the University. The policy recognises that sexual harassment is not an offence merely amounting to disruption of law and order. Sexual harassment is an act of power, and a public and collective violation that is often trivialised by labeling it an interpersonal transgression. It is therefore a violation of gender equality and also, of the right to a safe education and work environment for all. Sexual harassment not only affects a few individuals but reinforces gender-based discrimination for everyone.

It, therefore, becomes imperative that various educational institutions, and civil society as a whole, should take adequate measures to ensure the safety, security, dignity, rights and equality of women as much as of men. Such measures will strengthen social and professional relationships in the work place.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES FOR DEFINITION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND REDRESSAL MECHANISM

This policy defines sexual harassment and the mechanisms of redressal by looking at the specific structures, needs and imperatives in The University of Delhi, it is guided by the definition of sexual harassment given by the Supreme Court in 1997 in Vishakavs. State of Rajasthan.

It is also guided by the Justice Wad Committee Report of 1994 (University of Delhi) which in its definition of sexual harassment included Quid Pro Quo ("When submission to unwelcome conduct is explicitly or implicitly made a condition or the basis for employment decisions”) and a Hostile Work Environment (for example when a supervisor or co-worker(s) harasses someone solely because of her gender to the point that the conduct makes it more difficult for her to perform her job or the conduct creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment).

OBJECTIVES

To fulfill the directive of the Supreme Court enjoining all employers to develop and implement a policy against sexual harassment at the work place.

To evolve a permanent mechanism for the prevention and redressal of sexual harassment cases and other acts of gender based violence at the University of Delhi.

To ensure the implementation of the policy in letter and spirit through proper reporting of the complaints and their follow-up procedures.

To uphold the commitment of the University of Delhi to provide an environment free of gender-based discrimination.

To create a secure physical and social environment which will deter acts of sexual harassment

To promote a social and psychological environment which will raise awareness about sexual harassment in its various forms.

To generate public opinion against sexual harassment and all forms of gender-based violence.
